10 AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE."

11
12 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

13
14 NEW SECTION. Section 1. Local district board oversight -- methods for redress. (1)(a) If at 15 least 5% of the citizens that are served by a local government entity file a claim against the board of the local
16 government entity for allegations that the board has not complied with statutes applicable to the governance,
17 operation, and function of the board, including but not limited to a violation of public meeting law, the board
18 member appointment or election process, or the actions and duties required of a board member, the claim must 19 be filed with the governing body under whose authority the local government entity was created.

20 (b) The governing body under whose authority the local government entity was created shall remit
21 claims received under subsection (1)(a) to the county attorney. If the county attorney determines the claim has 22 merit, the local government entity shall participate in training provided by the local government center as 23 provided in subsection (2).

24 (2) (a) The local government center shall develop a training curriculum appropriate to address the 25 issues detailed in a claim referred by the county attorney to the local government center as allowed in 26 subsection (1)(b).

27 (b) The board of the local government entity shall participate in all relevant training provided by the 28 local government center.

(3) The board of the local government entity shall remit all fees necessary for the training required in subsection (2) to the local government center.

(4) The local government center shall report to the local government interim committee, in accordance with 5-11-210, all claims received that resulted in the development and delivery of training required under subsection (2).

(5) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Local government center" means the local government center provided for in 20-25-237.

(b) (i) "Local government entity" has the meaning provided in 2-7-501, except as provided in subsection (5)(b)(ii) of this section.

(ii) The term does not include a county, consolidated city-county, incorporated city or town, or school district.
